City Brevities.

The funeral of the Rev. John H. Smith will be given next Monday night.

The National Army will give a charity bazaar at the Metropolitan Club, December 29.

Articles regarding the "Mount Airy" colored Baptist Church have been filed.

Max Holcomb, who is wanted in Tennessee, for a crime, was arrested last night on Pennsylvania avenue by Detective Four.

The Commissioners have arranged for a hearing this morning at 11:30 o'clock in the Auditorium concerning the alleged trouble between members of the planning board.

John Bent, colored, was arrested last night by Detective Brown at Judiciary Square for Policeman Armandant of the Ninth Precinct, who has a warrant for the man on a second charge of petit larceny.

The burning of an electric wire in the cellar of the store of David Brown & Son, dry goods, at No. 743 Eighth street southeast, called out No. 8 engine company yesterday evening. The damage was slight.

The store of S. C. Hannon & Co., at No. 519 La. avenue, was entered to thieves about 7 o'clock last night. The cash box was broken into and all the money, $4 cents, was stolen. The burglars left no clue in their identity.

Mrs. Clara Wright, of No. 51 C street northwest, reported to the police yesterday that while standing at Eleventh and F streets about 8 o'clock Monday about midnight she picked up a pocketbook containing a child's gold ring, a pair of gold earrings and a key.

Green City Lots at Auction, 5000 ft. 1407 G St. N. W., Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 4:15. John's rules the auctioneer. Early terms. 11-11.

THE DINNER TO LEHMANN.

It Will Be Given at the Metropolitan Club.

Coach Lehmann and Henry Willis, of the Harvard crew, have been announced as the guests of honor at a banquet to be given tonight at the Metropolitan Club. The banquet also stated that the arrangements were made by Secretary Addison Porter. Last night at the Metropolitan Club it was stated that further information on the subject was to be had from Mr. Porter, who would arrive in the city today.

It was stated, possibly through an error, that the dinner was to be given at the Metropolitan Hotel. Last night at the hotel they knew nothing about the proposed banquet except what they had seen in the papers.

Lehmann and Willis had not arrived at the Metropolitan Club last evening.

AT THE MASQUERADE BALL.

Arlington Pleasure Club's Affair at Masquerade Temple.

A pleasant time was spent last night at Masquerade Temple, despite the rainy weather, the occasion being the first grand masquerade ball of the Arlington Pleasure Club. A feature of the evening was the cake walk, in which William Moller and P. E. McKeever were the successful contestants. Other songs were sung by Mr. Henry Hills and Mr. M. H. Clark whistled. The prizes were carried off by Miss Alice Wilson, as Topsy, and Mr. Charles Wetzel, as a grotesque German.

Those having charge of the affair were George A. Lester, C. H. Trishman, F. W. Helbig, G. A. Kneiss, Charles Southworth, Little, J. D. Robinson and Roger Reeves.

Murderer Winston Refuses to Talk.

Charles Winston, colored, who shot and killed his wife at their home, No. 521 Third street, southwest, Monday afternoon, and was arrested, is steadily refusing to give any information as to the circumstances of the crime and will not testify. Winston is cautious, but steadily refuses to say anything in regard to the crime. Counsel for the defense has decided to hold an inquest over the remains of the woman this morning at 11 o'clock, at No. 6 station-house.

Brother and Sister Asphyxiated.

Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 14.—Otto Lemke, aged twenty-five, and his sister, a few years younger, were found dead in their beds this morning, and in an adjoining room the father of the two children was found in a dying condition. Escaping coal gas from an antique heating stove was the cause of the tragedy. The father is still in a critical condition, and little hope for his recovery is entertained.

Choice Building Lots for a Song.

Adjoining our own lot at Sloan's station house, 1407 G St. N. W., Wednesday, Dec. 15 at 4:15. Green City, Md. is the auctioneer.
